

Career and Education Guide - 1 FTE

In recognition of the critical importance to this role of a lived understanding of Indigenous communities, history, values and culture, and in keeping with the BC Human Rights Tribunal pursuant to s.42(3) of the Human Rights Code, Indigenous applicants required..

Do you want to be part of an amazing team that helps support our indigenous community members and families with achieving their dreams?

Serving community as part of the CEER (Career, Employment & Educational Resources) Team and working alongside the Director of CEER, the Career and Education Guide will walk beside community members who are seeking support with achieving their career, employment and education goals. Our team is grateful to provide employment counselling, career planning and support with goal setting, as well as the financial support to achieve these goals.

How you will serve...

- Supporting Indigenous community members with their short-and-long term goals as it relates to education and career planning. We meet folks where they are at, working in a person-centered way to help folks move forward in their career journey's.
- Being a sounding board for others and helping with offering suggestions, ideas and input as it pertains to career options, training, and job opportunities
- Helping folks identify and address challenges they might be facing in reaching their career goals
- Having the grateful privilege of providing funding for reaching these goals (work gear, short term training and post-secondary)
- Helping folks grow their job readiness skills, assist with job search strategies, support writing resumes and even practice run before upcoming interviews
- Demonstrating respect and honor towards those we serve by upholding confidentiality and maintaining accurate notes in paper form and online
- Being part of something, beyond just your job title...we are a family at VNFC and demonstrate care, kindness and respect towards one another and those we collaborate with

We are looking for a balanced, grounded and KIND team member....is this you??

- High level of self-awareness and emotional intelligence
- Ability to respond to situations as they arise...."relaxing into the chaos" is what we call it on our team!
- Openness, willingness to shift and adapt, CREATIVE...new and innovative ideas are AWESOME
- Kind (worth mentioning again) and WELCOMING energy
- Strong sense of empathy and compassion for others
- Strong sense of personal and professional boundaries
- Demonstrates resiliency and ability to balance the self in a holistic way (body-mind-spirit)
- Awareness and knowledge of Indigenous ways of knowing, doing and being
- You can chat easily with folks 1:1 or in small groups...sharing information and facilitating small workshops
- You have awesome, clear and concise communication skills, both in writing and in person
- You are computer savvy, don't mind spreadsheets and databases and enjoy using the following programs: Microsoft Word, Excel, Outlook and Word, Facebook/social media
- Energetic presentation...we value taking good care of ourselves on our team!
- You are able to obtain a vulnerable sector criminal record check.
